

Environmental policy of KazTransOil JSC

KazTransOil Joint Stock Company (the Company), being the national operator of the trunk oil pipeline and the largest pipeline company of the Republic of Kazakhstan, taking into account the nature, scale and environmental impact of its activities, has identified as one of the main strategic objectives the reduction of negative environmental impact and ensuring a high level of environmental safety, for which the Company's management assumes the following obligations:

1. Comply with the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, international and national standards, internal documents of the Company in the field of environmental protection;
2. Prevent negative impact on the environment;
3. Ensure the introduction of safe and resource-saving technologies aimed at reducing emissions into the environment;
4. Actively involve and motivate the Company's employees in the implementation of programs and activities in the field of environmental protection;
5. Increase the ecological culture and competence of the staff, promote environmental protection activities;
6. Carry out constant monitoring of compliance by contractors with requirements in the field of environmental protection;
7. Ensure wide availability of environmental information and transparency of the Company's environmental activities to the public, shareholders, authorized state bodies and other concerned parties;
8. Apply measures to preserve biodiversity;
9. Carry out waste management operations;
10. Develop measures aimed at preventing the occurrence of emergency situations, and be ready to eliminate their consequences;
11. Rational use of natural resources at all stages of production activities;
12. Carry out reclamation of disturbed lands;
13. Regularly monitor the state of atmospheric air, soils, surface, underground and wastewater on the territory of production facilities;
14. Strive to ensure trouble-free operation and operation of all equipment and pipelines in order to minimize the risks of environmental pollution in case of accidents and oil spills;
15. Constantly improve the environmental management system to improve the results of activities in the field of ecology.

The obligations expressed in this Policy are the basis for establishing the Company's goals in the field of environmental safety, apply to all structural units and are included in the Company's business relations with partners.

The management of the Company considers the fulfillment of its obligations to be the key to the successful implementation of this Policy, continuous improvement of the results of activities in the field of environmental safety to ensure the sustainable development of the Company and promote the sustainable development of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

The Company's management is responsible for the implementation of this Policy and the provision of all necessary resources.